Re: Faith Bible Chapel International v. Gregory Tucker, 22-741

Dear Mr. Harris:

Under Supreme Court Rule 30.4, Respondent Gregory Tucker requests a 30-day extension to file his brief in opposition to Faith Bible's petition for certiorari. Because Tucker's brief in opposition is currently due on March 10, a 30-day extension to April 9 would make the brief due on Monday, April 10.

The extension is warranted because additional time is needed to prepare a useful and effective brief that adequately presents the issues for the Court's consideration. Additionally, Tucker anticipates that amici will file briefs in support of Faith Bible, so the additional time will allow Tucker's counsel to consider those arguments carefully and respond to them as warranted.

Sincerely,

Bradley Girard,
Counsel for Respondent
